

AN INMATE'S GUIDE TO ADMINISTRATIVE REMEDY REQUESTS AT FEDERAL PRISONS

This Guide has been created by the D.C. Prisoners' Project of the Washington Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights and Urban Affairs.
It is not intended to replace the advice of an attorney. It is not legal advice and does not create an attorney client relationship.
You are responsible for meeting all necessary deadlines and requirements.

This guide will help you with the Administrative Remedy Request process. You can find the full regulation in P.S. 1330.13. This process is important because you must use up all administrative solutions before you can file a lawsuit under federal law. It also creates a paper trail and shows you tried to resolve the problem. It might even work. To finish the process, you must:

1. Make an informal complaint.
2. File a Formal Administrative Remedy request. (Level I).
3. File an appeal to the Regional Director. (Level II).
4. File an appeal to the General Counsel. (Level III).

We know that this process is long and hard, and that your requests may not even be answered. It is very important that you follow all the steps on this sheet in order to protect your legal rights.

NOTE: You must use up all administrative solutions before suing under federal law. This means you must finish ALL the steps on this sheet. If you don't complete the entire process because you didn't receive a response, or did not have the proper form, etc., the court may say that you have not "exhausted" your administrative remedies. Don't take that chance. Finish the process.

Be persistent. Don't ever give up. Start with step 1 right away by filing a request as soon as possible. Then continue with all the appeals. If you are late in your request or appeal, turn it in anyway and explain why you are late.

Fill in the blanks of this worksheet as you go along. It will help you with this long and hard process.

1. MAKE AN INFORMAL COMPLAINT.

Check with your Counselor to learn the informal complaint process at your institution. The warden at each prison creates his or her own informal complaint process. Usually this will be a written form that is submitted to a staff member, normally your Counselor.

Write the DATE OF THE INCIDENT. This is the date the event happened, not the date you are making the complaint. Remember to make the informal within 20 days of the incident. Figure out what the deadline is by adding 20 days to the date of the incident.

A. DATE THE INCIDENT HAPPENED: _____

B. DATE YOU MADE YOUR INFORMAL COMPLAINT: _____

C. DEADLINE (DATE OF INCIDENT + 20 DAYS): _____

This deadline is for BOTH the informal complaint and the BP-9.

Staff members do not have a deadline to respond to your informal complaint. If your problem is not solved, move on to the next step: Level I: Formal Administrative Remedy request.

IMPORTANT: The deadline for Level I is the same as the deadline for informal complaints: 20 days after the incident.

2. FILE A FORMAL REQUEST WITH THE WARDEN (LEVEL I)

Use FORM BP-9. This is the Administrative Remedy Request Form.

INSTRUCTIONS:

Describe Your Problem:

- Write down everything that happened. Give as many details as possible. The staff will be able to help you better if they have all the information. If you run out of room, attach an extra letter-sized page. Do not attach more than one extra page. Make a copy of it. You can write out a copy by hand.

Only One Problem:

- Use one form for each complaint or incident. If you have many complaints, file separate forms for each.

The Informal Complaint:

- On the form, let the staff know if you made an informal complaint. Tell them the date you made the informal complaint. Write, "I disagree with the decision on the informal complaint and am filing a formal Administrative Remedy Request."

Deadlines:

- If this Level I form is past the 20-day deadline, explain why. Sometimes it is ok to file past the deadline. For example:

- You didn't get a response to your informal complaint. Write, "I did not receive a response to my informal complaint before this form was due. Therefore I am proceeding with the formal Administrative Remedy Request."

- There was a long period of time in-transit when you had no access to the forms.

- There was a long period of time when you could not fill out the paperwork because of a physical problem.

- You requested the necessary forms, but were not given the forms in time.

NOTE: If the issue you are raising involves a telephone charge or credit or telephone service problem that you want to be reimbursed for, you have 120 days after the date of the disputed charge to file this form. For all other incidents, the form must be filed 20 days after the incident occurred.

If You Are in General Population:

Write how you will turn in your request. For example, "I am placing this form in the mailbox on my unit on the date above."

If you are in Segregation or Isolation:

Write how you will turn in your request. For example, "I am submitting this form to a unit staff member."

Make Copies:

- Make and keep at least three (3) copies of this form. You need to keep copies for any legal action you take. You can write out the copies by hand.

E. I MADE _____ COPIES OF MY FORM BP-9.

Skipping Level I for Sensitive Issues

In some cases, you may file your grievance directly with the Regional Director (Level II) instead of going to the Warden first. You may skip Level I IF you believe that the issue you are raising is sensitive and your safety would be in danger if the Warden knew about your complaint. Write "Sensitive" on the grievance form. Explain why you are not going to the Warden first. THIS IS ONLY FOR VERY SENSITIVE ISSUES.

- Describe your problem just like you did in your form to the Warden. Give as much detail as possible. If you run out of room, attach an extra letter-sized page. Do not attach more than one extra page. Make 2 copies of it. You can write out your copies by hand.
